Message from Our Supreme President

My dear sister Columbiettes,
As the autumn leaves fall to the ground across our northern states and perhaps a cooler temperature comes to our southern areas of our beautiful America, our thoughts go to upcoming events where we gather together with family and friends renewing friendships and making new memories.

We all may not actually experience the drastic decline in the outdoor temperatures, but we all see the change in our Retail Stores from Halloween to Christmas and in many places skipping right over our Thanksgiving Holiday.

Thanksgiving is a wonderful time of year; the past has created many delightful memories in our minds eye of food and family. This year might be a bit different, so let us remember the true meaning of this time of year, when we stop and Give Thanks for the many blessings that God has given to us. To all the busy cooks within our Columbiette Order, please take time out for yourself and enjoy the blessings that He has given to you.

On behalf of the Supreme Board of Officers and Directors, Past Supreme Presidents and Territorial Deputies we wish You and Your family and friends a very Happy Thanksgiving. Please remember to say the Rosary and the Special Hail Mary at 8 PM – as our way to end COVID. This is working, as areas of our country are re-opening, and we are seeing little ways that life is getting a bit more normal.

Praying that all Stay Safe and Be Well, as we look forward to a better and brighter FUTURE together.

Wishing you all, Peace Always and Happy Thanksgiving to All !

Message from Our Supreme Chaplain

Dear Columbiettes,
Please allow my first words to you to be both Greetings and Thank You. Thank you to Supreme President Magee for giving me this opportunity to serve the Columbiettes as the Supreme Chaplain for the coming year. I am grateful for your prayers and support.

The month of November is a very important month to all of us spiritually. There are three important days that we all need to reflect upon as Catholics: All Saints Day, All Souls Day and Thanksgiving Day. On November 1, we celebrate All Saints Day. There are two kinds of saints in the Catholic Church. I like to call them Saints with a capital S and saints with a lower case

s. The Saints with a capital S are those men and women who have gone through the Church's Formal process of canonization and were formally raised on their respective feast days. On November 1, we remember them and also the saints with a lowercase s; all those who have lived good, holy lives here on earth but will probably not be recognized as Saints by the Church in a formal sense. These are our deceased parents, grandparents, family members, friends, etc. The definition of saint is simply one who is in heaven. We pray for the intercession of all the saints as we try our best to live as Jesus wants us to live in this life so we can be happy with Him in the next.

On November 2, we commemorate the Holy Soul. This is the day that we offer mass and pray for all of the deceased that have gone before us. We especially remember the souls in purgatory who were not totally ready to see God at the moment of their passing, but rather are preparing to see God. These souls can no longer help themselves, but rather rely on us, our prayers, our works of charity and masses that we have offered for them. Eternal Rest grant unto them O Lord ... and let Perpetual Light shine upon them.

On November 26, we celebrate Thanksgiving Day. This is a day on which we offer thanks to God for all the blessings He has bestowed upon us. How often do we take God for granted? How often do we take what God has given to us for granted? This Thanksgiving, might I suggest that we take the time to thank God for one thing that we might take for granted and thank Him for it? It could be family, friends, health etc. Happy Thanksgiving to all.

Finally, I had the occasion recently to read over the new Conduct Policy that was issued by our Supreme Council and approved membership. I found it to be very thorough and well done. As a Catholic organization, the Columbiettes is held to a higher standard of behavior than other organizations. We must be examples to others of living the Catholic Faith by both our words and actions. This includes treating all people fairly and justly with dignity and respect. Another aspect of living our faith is to support and defend the teachings of Holy Mother Church during these difficult times and in the society in which we live. This is especially true of those holding leadership positions in our Organization, Our Lord is here to help us in these endeavors. I hope and pray that all Columbiettes will take this policy to heart and live it in our dealings with others, Thank your once again for your prayers and support. If I can be of any assistance to any of you, please feel free to contact me. Saint Therese of the Little Flower and Saint Joan of Arc Pray for Us.

Message from the Supreme Past President:

My Dear Sister Columbiettes,

As we enter the month of November we are reminded of many things in our lives. Our Initiation into the Columbiettes tell us that November 1 we celebrate All Saints, the Church Triumphant and on November 2 we remember all those who may still be struggling in Purgatory, the Church Suffering. Let us remember to pray for their final reward and the peace and joy of being in the presence of Our Lord.

November is also the time for Thanksgiving. Of counting our blessings with family and friends. I am grateful for all that is good, the country we live in, the air we breathe and the love we give and receive. For family, friends and community. For our Columbiette Sisters and knowing that we are part of an organization larger than our own individual selves.

I honor those that serve so that our lives are safe, secure and protected. I acknowledge the difficult times, the trials, losses and challenges that we face in order to move forward. I hope that decisions made, and plans outlined for the future with the intention of doing good will benefit everyone and turn out well.

I thank God for everything in my life. The good and bad. Some are blessings and some are lessons. This month we need to make a habit to tell people thank you. To express our appreciation, sincerely and without expectation of anything in return. Truly appreciate those around you and you will soon find many others around appreciate me and you will find that you have more to enjoy of it. Winston Churchill said, "We make a living by what we get but, we make a life by what we give."

As Columbiettes I am always amazed by the generous and giving hearts that all of you possess and I am most grateful to call each of you my Sister. May God's grace be on you and your family during this thankful time.

Message from the Supreme Vice President:

This year has been a year like no other. I think we prayed more, social distanced more, and all in all hoped that this pandemic will soon be over. Despite all of this we look forward to the holidays that are fast approaching starting with Thanksgiving. A day to give thanks for all the blessings that God has given us, and he certainly has, even though it has been a tough year. We have our family, our friends and our health to be thankful for. We live in a great country where we can express our opinions freely. We are blessed. I wish all my Sister Columbiettes, my second family, a Blessed and Happy Thanksgiving. Take care and stay well. God Bless you all and God Bless America.

Dear Sister Columbiettes:

Happy Thanksgiving!

This year is going by more quickly than I thought. Maybe because we are all busy with Columbiette work again. It has been wonderful seeing all our new Sister Columbiettes who have joined our organization virtually. I guess we should thank those who created Zoom. Imagine how we would have all been affected years ago if we had gone through this pandemic without the ability to reach out to each other this way.

May you all be blessed with good health and remember to wear your mask!

VETERANS DAY
 NOVEMBER 11, 2020

Veterans Day is a U.S. legal holiday dedicated to American veterans of all wars. In 1918, on the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month, an armistice, or temporary cessation of hostilities, was declared between the Allied nations and Germany in World War I, then known as “the Great War,”

Commemorated in many countries as Armistice Day the following year. November 11th became a federal holiday in the United States in 1938. In the aftermath of World War II and the Korean War, Armistice Day became known as Veterans Day.

Territorial Deputy - WI

Greetings from the Great State of Washington – Lisa Roberts Territorial Deputy

The ladies of All Saints Auxiliary have been keeping up with all things Columbiettes. They continue to serve their communities and parish. In light of the new “normal” with COVID-19, they are like many holding meetings via zoom. The attendance has varied but they keep in close contact with all members with their program of “Small Acts – Reach Out to Touch Anyone”.

The October 14th regular meeting started a bit early with some fun costume antics. The ladies zoomed in all ready for a virtual Halloween parade. They signed in with their name as their costumed character and played some guessing games to identify who everyone was as well as circulating a poll with categories to pick the winners of such things as scariest, funniest, and most creative and so on. It was a lot of fun.

The meeting was also preceded by the recitation of the Rosary as this is the month of Mary’s Rosary. Beautifully done and set a wonderful tone for the ladies. They are working with all members to obtain the Code of Conduct and responses have been received. Deb Ramirez, Past President and Former Territorial Deputy chairs the Spiritual Connections and website. They hold prayer sessions every day at noon. All are welcomed. They are hosting a virtual self-directed retreat in February and are starting a new prayerful respite – Mary’s Mantle. It begins on October 28th and they have invited all members, families and parishioners to join. As in person events are for the most part not permitted, they are working new ways to continue some of their fundraising and community events. They have planned their holiday pie fundraiser by taking pre-orders and setting up a drive by pie pick up. They are going to initiate a Holiday Porch Drop for shut-ins, ill, infirmed and elderly of the five parishes that they support. They will be homemaking treat bags and filling them with purchased treats, prayer cards, etc. The need is great as so many will not have any holidays or visitors this holiday season.

As we all come up with new and different ways to reach out to the needy, support our parishes and be excellent examples of Catholic Women, the ladies of All Saints are keeping up their strong leadership. They work closely with their Knights and provide ongoing support which is welcomed and returned in kind.

I am very proud and enthused to be given this opportunity to work with these ladies who will be celebrating their 5th Anniversary. They will not be able to celebrate as they normally would during the Advent season. Their normal events would culminate with a festive Christmas Party, but their achievements are still worth celebrating, even in quiet. They have much to be proud of.

I look forward to the months to come and hope that the travel restrictions soon are lifted and I will have an opportunity to meet them all in person. I will be reaching out to the councils throughout the state to offer them an opportunity to enrich their Knights council with accepting Columbiettes into their family.

Wishing all a very Blessed Thanksgiving, Merry and Joyous Advent Season.

Disaster Relief Committee

The Committee would like to express their gratitude for all the contributions that keep coming in from our members. Your constant support and generous donations are an inspiration. We are thankful that you keep putting out the collection boxes even in these trying times. Thank you from all those we have been a service to.

SAINT GERTRUDE THE GREAT

NOVEMBER 16

St. Gertrude the Great, or St. Gertrude of Helfta, was born on January 6, 1256 in Germany. She eventually chose to follow the Lord by pursuing a vocation as a Benedictine Nun. Her deep relationship with the Lord in prayer led to her being hailed as a mystic. She was also regarded as a great theologian.

Although little is known about Gertrude's childhood, it is widely accepted that at just four-years-old, she was enrolled in the Cistercian monastery school of Helfta in Saxony, under the governance of Abbess Gertrude of Hackerborn.

The Cistercian movement was an effort to bring the Benedictine religious community back to a stricter and more faithful adherence to the original "Rule" or way of life encouraged by St Benedict. Some sources speculate that Gertrude's parents offered their child as an oblate, a lay person especially dedicated to God or to God's service, while others believe she may have entered the monastery school as an orphan.

St. Mechtilde, the younger sister of the Abbess Gertrude, took care of young Gertrude. Gertrude and Mechtilde had a strong bond that only grew deeper with time, allowing Mechtilde to have a great influence over Gertrude.

Gertrude, known for being charming and able to win people over, entered the Benedictine Order at Helfta and became a nun. She devoted herself to her studies and received an education in many different subjects. Gertrude was both fluent in Latin and very familiar with scripture and works from the Fathers of the Church, including Augustine.

In 1281, 25-year-old Gertrude experienced her first series of visions that would continue until the day she passed away. Her visions altered her life and she saw this moment as her new birth. Her priorities turned away from secular teachings and focuses more on studying Scripture and theology. Her life became full with this awakening and she was an enthusiastic student, writing for the spiritual benefit of others.

Gertrude once had a vision on the feast of John the Evangelist, described in Gertrude's writings. As she rested her head near Jesus' wound on his side, she could hear the beating of his heart. She asked St. John if he, too, felt the beating of Jesus' Divine Heart on the night of the Last Supper. He told her he was saving this revelation for a time when the world needed it to rekindle its love.

She went on to become one of the great mystics of the 13th century. Along with St. Mechtilde, she practiced what is known as "nuptial mysticism," seeing herself as the bride of Christ. She embraced charity for both rich and poor, she was a simple woman with a deep solidarity with those not yet ready for the beatific vision, who are still being purified in the state of repose known as purgatory.

Gertrude assisted at the deathbeds and mourned for the loss of both Abbess Gertrude of Hackeborn in 1291 and her dearly loved St. Mechtilde in 1298. Gertrude's health began to deteriorate, but she continued to only show her love for the Lord

"Until the age of 25, I was a blind and insane woman... but you, Jesus, deigned to grant me the priceless familiarity of your friendship by opening to me in every way that most noble casket of your divinity, which is your divine Heart, and offering me in great abundance all your treasures contained in it".

On November 17, 1301, Gertrude passed away a virgin and joined her Bridegroom forever.

Throughout her life, Gertrude produced numerous writings, although only a few still exists today. One of her longest surviving works is Legatus Memorialis Abundantiae Divinae Pietatis (The Herald of Divine Love). Her other standing works include, her collection of Spiritual Exercises and Preces Gertrudianae (Gertrudian Prayers).

The Herald of Divine Love is composed of five different books. Book two is the core of the work and was written solely by Gertrude. It is a notable piece of writing because it includes detailed descriptions of Gertrude's visions and a veneration of Christ's heart. The other four books are believed to have been composed by other nuns.

Although Gertrude was never formally canonized, Rome approved a liturgical office of prayer and readings in her honor. To separate her from Abbess Gertrude of Hackeborn, Pope Benedict XIV gave her the title, "the Great," making her the only woman saint to be called, "the Great."

St. Gertrude the Great is the Patroness of the West Indies and she is often invoked for souls in purgatory. Her feast day is celebrated on November 16.

Gertrude the Great (or Saint Gertrude of Helfta; Italian: Santa Gertrude; January 6, 1256 – c. 1302) was a German Benedictine nun, mystic, and theologian. She is recognized as a saint by the Catholic Church and is inscribed in the General Roman Calendar for optional celebration throughout the Roman Rite, as a memorial on November 16.

WOW!

The History of Thanksgiving Day

On September 6, 1620, the small ship Mayflower departed Plymouth, England, and set sail for the New World. It carried 102 passengers, an assortment of religious separatists (Pilgrims) seeking freedoms and opportunists seeking prosperity. The uncomfortable and treacherous voyage took 66 days. In November, they sighted land at the tip of Cape Cod and realized they could not reach their intended destination of Virginia due to the oncoming winter weather.

Prior to an anticipated landing, the passengers agreed to unite under a governance and signed a pact guaranteeing equality for all in self-government by common consent. It was called the "Mayflower Compact" and many historians consider this the forerunner to the Constitution of the United States of America. John Carver was elected their first governor.

One month later, after enduring extremely rough seas, the Mayflower crossed Massachusetts Bay and anchored on land offering a good harbor with many resources. Captain John Smith had named the place Plymouth five years earlier and the colonists agreed settle here.

The winter of 1620-1621 was brutal. Most of the ill-equipped colonists remained on board the ship. Exposure to the harsh weather, scurvy, and contagious disease claimed many lives. Only half of the colonists and crew survived: 22 men, 4 women and 25 children. In March, they were able to move ashore and were befriended by the Wampanoag, local Native Indians. The Native Americans gave them food and taught them how to catch fish in the rivers, avoid poisonous plants, cultivate corn, grow vegetables, extract sap from maple trees, and store crops.

In November 1621, following a successful harvest, Governor William Bradford organized a "thanksgiving" feast which lasted for three days. The concept of the feast was based on the English tradition of providential holidays: days of prayers, feasting, and celebrating to "thank" God for "giving" times of plenty. The four surviving adult women cooked and ninety Native Americans were invited to the grand community celebration. It included a menu of corn bread, Indian corn, barley, pumpkins, peas, cranberries, chestnuts, waterfowl, deer, fish, beer, and wild turkey, per the writing "Of Plymouth Plantation" by William Bradford.

During the American Revolution, the Continental Congress designated one or more days of thanksgiving a year. In 1789, President George Washington issued the first proclamation for Americans to express a day of thanksgiving for their gratitude of victory in the War of Independence and the ratification of the U. S. Constitution. John Adams and James Madison also designated days of thanks during their presidencies. In 1827, Sarah Josepha Hale, author, magazine editor, and prolific writer ("Mary Had a Little Lamb") launched a campaign, lasting 36 years, to designate a national holiday of thanksgiving. President Abraham Lincoln, in 1863, issued a proclamation during the height of the Civil War naming the last Thursday in November as a national day of "thanksgiving and praise to our beneficent Father who dwelleth in the Heavens." In 1941, President Franklin D. Roosevelt signed into Federal Law a bill officially designating the fourth Thursday in November as "Thanksgiving Day" and a national holiday.

The staff of the "Communicator" wishes you and your family a Happy Thanksgiving. May your day be filled with gratitude and love.

LET'S LEARN

DID YOU KNOW. . .

As Thanksgiving approaches and we contemplate on all for which we are grateful, take time to thank your members for what they do to make your Auxiliary successful. Let them know how important and meaningful it is when they step up to take charge of an event, lend a hand, and are welcoming to all the members. In the words of Voltaire, "Appreciation is a wonderful thing. It makes what is excellent in others belong to us as well."

As leaders, we must always remember our members voluntarily decided to join this wonderful organization and made it a part of their lives. The Columbiette culture, goals, and mission have developed overtime with the positive input of everyone. For this, we are grateful.

Officers also volunteer and do the best they can. We must not forget to thank the officers on all levels of our Organization for their guidance, caring, patience, and time. Their dedication makes the Columbiettes a group in which we all are proud to belong. For this we are appreciative.

The essence of this holiday season is marked with thankfulness and giving. Let us keep these spirits alive each and every day. Let us strive to lead with gratitude for others, appreciation for individual uniqueness, and give the best of ourselves.

Computer Help Desk

We are having another problem with the system where it seems it won't hold a change to the state of a member if it has been changed. For example, if the Financial Secretary tries to change a record of a person who moves from NY to FL, it reverts back to the original. Please send these situations to the computer help desk, with member name, number and Auxiliary and we can fix this for you.

If you have any questions or issues with the computer system or need a password, please send an email to supremecomputerhelp@columbiettes.com.

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton-Ontario, CA

To begin this season of thanks, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Columbiettes in Ontario, CA, are collecting thank you cards with messages of gratitude for frontline health workers through the month of October. The cards were delivered to Pomona Valley Medical Center in Pomona and Kaiser Permanente Ontario Medical Center in Ontario. Included in the cards were messages thanking the workers for their service, hard work, and dedication to the community during this pandemic crisis. The below picture is the drop off box which was stationed at the St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Rectory.

Divine Mercy-Hamden CT

The Divine Mercy Columbiettes, in Hamden, CT looked at COVID-19 restrictions and decided they'd need to change all of the ways they raise funds for donating to their favorite charities. It didn't take long for the idea of designing a cookbook of favorite recipes from their members, friends, other parishioners, and local establishments to take form.

Working independently and via zoom throughout the months of July, August and September their cookbook, Divine Delights, came to be thanks to the efforts of many Columbiettes assuming the various roles needed to design a high quality, padded 3-ring binder with 412 recipes in it. The binder includes a protective coating, durable metal binding that opens so you can add to it, bookstand and printed liners. Full-color tabbed dividers, that include Helpful Hints on the backs, separate the recipe categories.

Many recipes include artwork signifying special events and holidays when they're made. Throughout the book a flower symbol by the recipe signifies, "In memory of," these special recipes have been passed down from loved ones through generations. Divine Delights also includes recipes shared by local businesses.

Divine Delights will be here in plenty of time for Christmas giving, so if you are interested in purchasing one or more cookbooks at $20 each please call or text auxiliary president, Carol Aloï at 203-641-2758 to order yours.

Fun Fact:

History is made!

The First Degree, which initiated new members into the Columbiette Organization, was adopted in 1939. The Major Degree, which granted members full rights in the Organization, was instituted in 1942. Changes were made to both degrees over the years.

St. Joseph- Lakeland, Florida

St. Bartolomew's- East Brunswick, NJ

St. Bartholomew's Columbiettes in East Brunswick has started up again with in person meetings.

We have already held our first two meetings and a First Degree. It has always been important to us to accomplish the requirements for the state and for the Margaret J Mary Mangan Awards. Not knowing what the year ahead will bring and whether we will be forced to quarantine due to the virus or if the flu season will make our members nervous to come out, we have started to work on these requirements at our meetings.

In doing this, we have tried to use these activities as ways to socialize since we cannot share refreshments right now. We devoted September to St. Theresa of Calcutta with a month-long prayer devotion. All of our members were given Bookmarks with a St. Theresa saying. At the end of our meeting we held a baby shower for Life Choices in Metuchen. Members enjoyed baby shower games along with prizes. We also held a corporate communion in late September.

Our October meeting was held on St. Therese, our Patron Saint's Feast Day. We began our meeting a little late as our members attended our church's devotional mass and shower of roses ceremony as a group. At our meeting members each received a fabric mask made of a rose design fabric to remember St. Therese. Following the meeting we wrote our Christmas cards for residents in a local nursing home. We did this early so that we could bag the cards to guarantee they were virus free come December. We also made beaded lanyards to use with our masks.

We are already preparing for our November meeting and activities including involving our school children in making Veteran's Day cards which we hand deliver at a local restaurant. As in the past, we will be participating in the Samaritan's Purse, Operation Christmas Child program. We purchase the boxes and hand out, collect, and deliver the boxes for our church.

As of right now it is hard to hold big events and yet we still wanted to do a family activity, so we chose a pumpkin picking day.

Members, their spouses, friends, children and grandchildren had a great time picking pumpkins, going on hayrides and running through corn mazes all while wearing masks and social distancing.

We have put all fund raising on hold and are just trying to be cautious with our current funds.

As far as how we are trying to keep safe prior to the meeting we wash the tabletops and metal on the chairs in our Knights building. The chairs are all spaced as far apart as possible. We have opted not to use our cloths, statues and jewels so they remain clean and safe. Following the meeting the members are all asked to use Lysol spray on their chairs and the tables are cleaned again. Members are welcome to wear masks for safety, encouraged not to come if they are not feeling well, and given the freedom to place their chairs wherever they feel most comfortable. We have also spaced out our officers. So far, the virus has not affected our attendance and in actuality, our October meeting was probably the most well attended meeting in years. I think people are looking to go out in a place they feel safe.

We do have a few members that are not comfortable coming out and have kept them involved by sending out newsletters about twice a month via email or regular mail. The newsletters include ways the members not attending can still get involved with our activities and we are happy to say, they are staying involved.

In the month of October, we honored our Blessed Mother Mary by Praying the Rosary.

In the Month of November, we will pray for all Souls especially those in Purgatory.

Castro Silva Sacred Heart Columbiettes attended "America Needs Fatima" prayer service held at Sacred Heart on Saturday, October 10th, at 12 noon, Following the rosary, the movie "Fatima" was shown in our parish hall which was attended by our Columbiettes.

St Gabriel the Arch Angel-On October 10, they met at a local park to pray the rosary for our country. We had a very good turnout, Families with children, Knights, couples, and other members of the community joined us. Afterwards, a group of Knights and Columbiettes went to a local "Street side Showers" location and dropped off donations and met with the man who began the ministry. It is a much-needed ministry that serves McKinney's homeless population. We will be working with the Knights in the future to support this cause.

St Rose of Lima Columbiettes- Assisted and participated in the living rosary held on Parish grounds on Sunday October 18, at 6 p.m. We assisted the Nuns with setup and had one Columbiette dressed as our Mother to lead the rosary. Columbiettes recited the 4th mystery

Castro Silva Sacred Heart Columbiettes-Waco. Texas

Most gracious Heavenly Father, we thank you for this season of Thanksgiving and gratitude. It is especially during this time that we reflect on the multitude of blessings bestowed upon us – our families, our homes, security, our country, our health, and love for one another. But most of all, Lord, we are thankful for the gift of Jesus. We are so grateful to have you in our lives for we know these blessings all come from you. We pray to keep the feeling of thankfulness and gratefulness in mind not only during the Thanksgiving season but each and every day.

As we gather on Thanksgiving Day, may we be mindful of our active military members and our veterans. It is by their service and sacrifices that we are assured the blessing of peace and freedom. We pray for each of these men and women who either by their current or past service, has given of themselves for us all. For those who made the ultimate sacrifice, we pray for them and trust that each of them dwell with you in your heavenly kingdom. May you touch their families, dear Lord, and grant them comfort in knowing their loved ones gave so much to allow us the peace we enjoy not only during the Thanksgiving season, but every day.

We are forever grateful to you, Heavenly Father, and we give thanks for your guidance, protection, and your unending love.

Amen.

“Let them give thanks to the Lord for His unfailing love and His wonderful deeds for mankind.” Psalm 107:21

Happy Thanksgiving to all our sister Columbiettes.
